

Practic-1 [Ans]

① Fill in the Blanks

(a) NCC trains school and college students for military duties.

(b) Maternal relatives are those from mother's side.

(c) The child who is cared for is called the adopted child.

(d) Foster Parents look after the adopted child.

(e) Animals which do not lay eggs but give birth to babies are called Mammals.

(f) Womb is a place inside the mother body where the Baby grows.

2) True/False

- (a) Mammals lay eggs [F]
- (b) when someone brings up a child who is born to them it is called adoption [F]
- (c) Nestling means a baby bird that is too young to leave the nest [T]
- (d) Reproduction means the process by which animals produce more of their kind [T]
- (e) A baby can eat and breathe on its own when baby is inside the mother's womb [F]
- (f) The appearance, behaviour and lifestyle of people do not change as they grow [F]
- (g) In Nuclear family only parents and children stay together [T]

Match the following :

① Paternal
Relative

③ Physical change

② Big family

⑤ Lay eggs

③ Appearance

④ Carries oxygen
and food

④ tube

② Joint family

⑤ Bird

① Father's side