

12/05/21
Wednesday

Chapter-2

(1)

My Extended Family

Immediate Family:

* The people with whom you live is your immediate family.

* Mostly your parents, brothers and sisters and sometime family members like our grandparents make up an immediate family.

Extended Family:

* Family members who do not stay with us or stay separately, but important for us are part of our extended family.

* Both maternal and paternal relatives are part of an extended family.

* Members of an extended family meet for family functions or for some important day.

Family Gatherings:

When all members of a family meeting together for a social event or family function then it is family gathering.

Family Functions:

→ The birth of a child

→ Naming Ceremony: The name of a child announced according to their own tradition or culture.

→ House-Warming Ceremony:

In this ceremony, a party is given to celebrate when a person is moving to a new home.

Note: Big decisions are generally taken in the presence of all the family members or we can say it is a family decision.

e.g → Decision of marriage.