

2/1/05/20
Friday

Ch-3

1

Date
Page No.

[Extra Questions]

① write T for true or F for false (T/F)

- ① we do not live with our immediate family members []
- ② Extended families usually meet during family functions []
- ③ Values are good things that our parents and extended families teach us []
- ④ All members of the family are usually not consulted about major family decisions []
- ⑤ Naming ceremony is a family function []

② Name them:

① Any occasion when we meet some members of our extended family _____

- (b) The members of your extended family _____
- (c) A function in which a newborn baby is given a name _____
- (d) A ceremony to celebrate one's first entry into new house _____
- (e) Family members who stay with us are _____
- (3) Fill in the blanks
- (a) _____ helps us to become better people and are passed on among the family members.
- (b) When important _____ have to be made, members of family consult one another.
- (c) Extended families usually meet during _____.

Extra Questions
[Ch-4]

3

Date _____
Page No. _____

① Fill in the Blanks:

(a) Nerves pick up _____ from the outside world and carry them to your brain.

(b) The _____ in your nose help to pick up smells in the air.

(c) A touch can be _____ as _____.

(d) In _____ script the letters of the alphabet are represented by raised dots.

(e) The fore _____ help us to know the world _____ around us.

Match the following

- | | |
|------------------|-------------------------|
| ① Nerves | ④ warm and nice |
| ② Sense of smell | ⑤ differently-abled |
| ③ good touch | ⑥ wire like tubes |
| ④ Hellen Keller | ⑦ processes the signals |
| ⑤ Brain | ⑧ parathas (food) |

3) True / False :

- a) The nerves covers the body []
- b) The brain tells us what type of object we touch []
- c) People touch in same way []
- d) Bad touch make us fearful []
- e) We must be sensitive to the needs and feelings of differently-abled people []