

HOLIDAY HOMEWORK

(CLASS -5)

1. Learn the poem "I stood against the window".
2. Learn all the word meanings of ch -1 and ch-2.
3. Learn the ch-1(sentences) ch-2(nouns). I will take a test after vacation.

ACTIVITY

Paste a picture of your favorite author and write short note about him /her.(write 7-8lines).

READING COMPREHENSION

Read the paragraph. Then answer the questions.

Olympic Jobs

Everyone knows that thousands of athletes compete in the Olympic Games and that hundreds of thousands of visitors attend. But did you know that about 60,000 more people work to make the Olympics run smoothly? That's pretty impressive! Some of these workers are paid, but thousands of others are volunteers. All of them have to be trained for their job. These workers do everything from sweeping up litter to escorting competitors to selling tickets to announcing winners.

1. A title that best summarizes this paragraph is
 - A. How Athletes Compete at the Games.
 - B. Tips for Visitors to the Olympics.
 - C. Working as a Ticket Seller.
 - D. Workers Behind the Olympics.
2. In this paragraph, the word volunteers means
 - A. litter sweepers.
 - B. unpaid workers.
 - C. competitors.
 - D. athletic winners.
3. From this paragraph, you can conclude that
 - A. the Olympics are a lot of fun.
 - B. Olympic workers are paid well.
 - C. running the Olympics is a big job.
 - D. most Olympic visitors help out.