

28/06/2020
~~Wednesday~~
Monday

Class - IV
English Course Book
Poem - Daisies

Q1. Answer these questions.

1. Where do the stars shine?

Ans. The stars shine in the sky.

2. What/Who does the speaker refer to as 'a sweet and fair lady'?

Ans. The speaker refers to the Moon as 'a sweet and fair lady'.

3. What happens in the morning?

Ans. In the morning, there are no stars in the sky because the Moon has dropped them all down into the meadows of the town.

Q10. Read these lines and answer the questions.

1. They are the little daisies
white

a. Who are 'they'?

Ans. 'They' are the stars.

2. Why are they called daisies?

(b)
Ans - They are called daisies because they are white and almost shaped like the daisies.

2. She's picked them all and dropped them down.

a. What does she drop?

Ans - She drops the stars.

b. Where does she drop them?

Ans - She drops them into the meadows of the town.

Q.E.

Answers

1. bed Overhead shed

2. white night fight

3. so go low

4. fair there stare

5. arise skies flies

6. down town brown

Q.F.

Ans - Across the sky the Moon will go.
It is a lady, sweet and fair.