

Reading Comprehension

Directions: Read the short story. Answer the questions.

The monarch butterfly has orange, black and white wings.

These butterflies can't survive cold winters.

Starting in October, they migrate to spend their winter in Mexico and Southern California.

The adults eat nectar from flowers. Monarchs live from 2 to 6 weeks.

Choose the correct option and tick it.

1) Monarch butterflies can't survive _____ .

summer season

rainy season

cold winters

2) Monarchs live from _____ weeks.

2 to 6 weeks

3 to 7 weeks

9 to 10 weeks

3) State true, not true or not sure.

1) The monarch butterfly has orange, black & white wings. _____

True

not true

not sure

2) In October, the monarch butterflies migrate to spend their winters in Paris. _____

True

not true

not sure

4) Find another word from the text which is the same as the word – roam

Stay

remain

migrate

Instructions – Dear students, do this Reading Comprehension in your English Copy