

22/07/2021
Thursday

English
Class - III
Ch-3 (Verbs)

Write in copy
Date
Page

Use of has or have

He She
It
Singular Nouns.
(One)

has

I
You
We They Plural Nouns.
(more than one)

have.

Q Fill in the blanks with has or have

1. Apples have small seeds.
2. Nitin has a beautiful picture.
3. Rina has a blue car.
4. I have an umbrella.
5. Children have four posters.
6. It has a ~~size~~ handle.

J. Fill in the blanks with has or have.

1. The door has a handle.
2. Nitin has a basketball.
3. Yogesh and Meeta have a kitchen garden at home.
4. Sonia has a big rocking chair at home.
5. January has thirty-one days.
6. Indira and Anju have bananas for breakfast.
7. How many pages does the book have?
8. Maria has a large collection of stamps.
9. Sunil has lots of happy memories of his trip to Nainital.
10. The Chatterjees have a white car.
11. Do the children have pens?
12. Ira's mother has a lot of patience.
13. Haneef has a pet cat.
14. Lata has a wall map of India.
15. Diana has a cricket bat and a pair of gloves.
16. What did the children have for breakfast?
17. An insect has six legs.
18. Let Jasbir and Jaspreet have whatever they like.
19. The park near my house has a lot of swings.
20. Apples have small seeds.
21. Those boys have no courage.
22. Gopal has four posters.
23. Seema has a toothache.
24. Asha has a bicycle.
25. The rhino has a short tail.

We use was, were or had when we talk about something that has already happened.
We use had or was when we talk about one person or thing.

EXAMPLES: Mary had a little lamb. Peter Pan was a little boy.

We use were when we talk about two or more people or things.

EXAMPLE: The farmer's cows were grazing in the field.

K. Use was, were or had to complete each sentence.

1. The horse was in the stable.
2. I had a friend who spoke Tamil.
3. The train was late.
4. The windows were shut.
5. Emperor Akbar had a son called Jehangir.
6. The grapes were sweet.
7. The socks were torn.
8. The children were happy to see their uncle.
9. There were many stars in the sky last night.
10. Mr Iyer was a soldier.
11. Kapil Dev was the captain of the Indian cricket team.
12. The Guptas and the Sharmas were neighbours.
13. We were happy to join the swimming class.
14. Manoj had a packet of sunflower seeds.
15. King Pandu had five sons.
16. There were two girls who jumped higher than me.
17. Rahul was late for breakfast.
18. John and Susan were in the same section last year.
19. I had a mango after dinner.
20. Dinosaurs were huge animals that lived long ago.
21. There was a lamp on the table.
22. I had a doll called Pinky. It had black hair.

