

Date _____
Page No. _____

Ans of Answer these Questions :

- ① Panchayat looks after the trees and plants in villages.
- ② Weeds are harmful as they do not let the useful plants grow.
- ③ The plants which people grow in and around their homes are called domestic plants.
- ④ Roots which store food for the plants are called storage roots.
Example: Carrot, radish, beetroot.
- ⑤ Parasitic plants grow on other plants. No, they cannot make food or absorb water from the soil.
- ⑥ Roots bind the soil or hold the plant firmly to the soil and prevent soil erosion.

write True/ False : [5 Marks]

- ① Some wild plants are useful for us [T]
- ② Roots eaten during a famine are Yam and Tapioca [T]
- ③ Roots have tiny hair-like structures called root hairs [T]
- ④ A tap root consists of many small roots [F]
- ⑤ Shoot system is deep inside the soil [F]

Fill in the blanks [5 Marks]

- ① Roots which grow downwards from the branches to the soil are called Aerial roots.
- ② Topsoil is the topmost part of the soil, which is very fertile.
- ③ Weeds are wild plants, which are unwanted.
- ④ Trees which grow in the forests are looked after by the forest department.
- ⑤ Carrot is a root but eaten as vegetable.