

Class-III, Poem - My Playmate

Dt - 10/8/2021

Q/A

Date

Page

1. What makes the child feel sorry for the little boy?

Ans - The child feels sorry that he has to step on the little boy's feet.

2. Why does the child want to speak to the little boy?

Ans - The child wants to speak to the little boy because the boy seems very kind.

3. What does the little boy never do?

Ans - The little boy never speaks.

4. Where does the child think the little boy is?

Ans The child thinks that the little boy is in a strange land on the other side and just opposite to him.

Q 10. Read these lines and answer the questions.

Ans 1(a) → The speaker was the child.

1(b) → The speaker was wondering how a little boy who looks just like him comes out to play on a rainy day.

Ans 2(a) → 'He' was the little boy.

Ans 2(b) → The speaker thought the little boy was kind because when he smiled at him, the little boy smiled back in the same way.

Ans 3(a) The speaker believed that the little boy was in a strange land because though the little boy smiled like him, he was always upside down and never spoke anything.

Ans 3(b) → The speaker thought the strange land was just opposite to him on the other side.

H/W
Write in your copy
Q/A
Learn for the Oral
Test.