

10/08/21
Tuesday

EVS
Chapter-9 [Fun To Learn]

Date
Page No. 1

(C) Answer these questions:

(1) Name some flowers that bloom in Spring, late summer and winter

Ans: Flowers bloom:

In Spring	In late summ	In winter
Plalash	→ gulmohar	→ Rose
	→ Jasmine	→ gladioli

(2) what are sepals?

Ans: The sepals surround the petals.

(3) How is a fruit formed?

Ans: A bud blossom into a flower and flower develop into fruit.

[when the pollen and egg meet, a fruit formed]

(4) How do bees make honey?

Ans: Bees make honey from the nectar of flower.

Q7: Name some flowers eaten as food.

Ans: flowers of Kachnar, banana and Pumpkin plant are eaten as food

Date _____
Page No. (2)

Ans (4) Steps of formation of honey:

* Bees spit out the nectar in the comb and seal it with wax that they produce themselves

* Slowly nectar turns into honey.

* Honey is stored in combs.

Q 5 → Refer notes

Q6: Mention the importance of flowers in our lives.

Importance of flowers in our lives:

Ans: * we decorate idols with garlands on religious festivals.

* They are used to decorate homes.

* They are used to make rangoli

* we greet people with garlands and bouquets.

* Flowers are used to make oils and perfumes

* They are also used by artists called floral motifs.

- ◆ and make oils and...
- ◆ A florist is a person who sells flowers.

FUN TO LEARN

A. Fill in the blanks.

1. The most beautiful part of a plant is its Flower
2. Roses bloom in the winter season.
3. Nectar from flowers becomes honey.
4. The buds of cauliflower and broccoli is eaten.
5. A florist is one who sells flowers.

B. Answer in one or two words.

1. Coloured parts of a flower Petals
2. They surround the petals Sepals
3. Yellow powdery substance on a flower Pollen grain
4. Small chambers in a bee hive Combs
5. Place where bees are reared Apiary
6. We get this from the crocus flower Saffron

C. Answer these questions.

1. Name some...