Pronouns

Pronouns are words that take the place of nouns.

* We use pronouns to avoid repeating nouns.

Examples

1. Tarush is six years old.

↳ He is in Class-II.

2. Ira plays in the park.

↳ She is a good girl.

Q. Tick (✓) the correct pronoun in each of the following sentences.

1. Raju threw the ball to (me / I).

2. (We / him) play on the swings in the park.

3. Nita and (I / we) are going to the zoo.

[Write in copy]

A. Circle all the pronouns.

One day, when I was playing with some friends, I saw Anita and Anuj crossing the road outside their house. They said they were going to the park. We said we would go with them. Anita ran back to get her football. She said we had to be careful with it. It was a present from her uncle. He was a famous football player.

We use I and me when we mean ourselves. They are used instead of the name of a single person. We and us are used instead of the names of two or more people.

I, me, we and us are pronouns of the first person.

EXAMPLES: I love biscuits. Please give me some.

We love biscuits. Please give us some.

We use you when we mean the person or persons we are talking to.

You is a pronoun of the second person.

EXAMPLES: I will help you with your maths homework.

You are kind.

We use he or him when we talk about a man or a boy. We use she or her when we talk about a woman or a girl. He, him, she and her are used instead of the name of a single person. We use they and them when we talk about more than one person or thing. He, him, she, her, they and them are pronouns of the third person.

EXAMPLE: She is my cousin.

We use it when we talk about a thing or an animal.

EXAMPLE: The rice became soft after water was added to it.
