The Story of Echo

Q/A

Q.B. Answer these questions

1. What did nymphs love?

Ans. Nymphs loved flowers and brooks.

2. Why was Echo punished?

Ans. Echo was punished because she displeased Juno, the queen of the gods.

3. What happened to Echo the nymph?

Ans. Echo the nymph grew thin and pale, and soon disappeared. Only her voice was left. She could only speak if someone spoke to her.

4. When can you hear Echo now?

Ans. We can hear Echo if we are in the woods or when we walk near some high rock on a quiet evening.

5. What did the boy's mother tell them?

Ans. The boy's mother said, "Gentle words will bring you gentle words and rough speech will be echoed the same way."

Qc. Read these lines and answer the questions

Ans. 1(a) → Juno was the queen of gods.

Ans. 1(b) → We know that Juno was very powerful because she could change a nymph to a stone, a fountain, the breeze or anything she wanted.

Ans. 2(a) → Juno said this to Echo, the nymph.

2(b) → Echo was allowed to have only her voice. Everything else was taken away from her.

Ans. 3(a) → Echo felt this way because she was being punished for displeasing the powerful Juno.

Ans. 3(b) → After this, she grew thin and ~~pa~~ pale. She had only her voice left. She could answer only if someone spoke to her.
