

3/09/2021
Friday

Possessive Adjectives

* Possessive adjectives are used to show ownership.

* Possessive adjectives answer the question whose.

Examples

* My bicycle is new * Here is your cap.

* Is that your pencil? *

* A possessive adjectives is always followed by a noun.

Examples - my brother, his dog her car etc.

Possessive Pronouns

Possessive pronouns comes after a noun.

Example - This bag is mine

* my, your, his, her, its, our, their → Possessive adjectives

* mine, yours, his, hers, ours and theirs
→ Possessive pronouns.

3.09.2021

- The Small rabbit played a trick on the big lion.
- Sharmila is a strong girl but her brother is weak.
- The orange is sweet but its peel is bitter.
- The coffee is cold but the soup is hot.
- Sheila's desk is tidy but Supinder's desk is untidy.

J. Some animals are said to have certain qualities. Circle the quality each animal is supposed to have.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. A fox is said to be (timid / sly). | 6. A bat is said to be (deaf / blind). |
| 2. A bull is said to be (weak / strong). | 7. A peacock is said to be (proud / angry). |
| 3. A tortoise is said to be (quick / slow). | 8. An owl is said to be (foolish / wise). |
| 4. A bee is said to be (busy / lazy). | 9. A kitten is said to be (lazy / playful). |
| 5. A mouse is said to be (blind / quiet). | 10. A tiger is said to be (fierce / timid). |

K. Fill in the blanks with the position of the children in the queue.

- Lucy is standing sixth in the queue.
- Asha is standing second in the queue.
- Kamal is standing last in the queue.
- Bela is standing fifth in the queue.
- Amit is standing fourth in the queue.
- Ajay is standing first in the queue.
- Raja is standing third in the queue.
- Jasbir is standing eighth in the queue.
- Mohit is standing seventh in the queue.
- Sheila is standing ninth in the queue.

I am sixth in the queue.

sly - सूझ (cunning)
clever

fierce - (dangerous) temble

playful - fond of games / fun loving

L. Fill in the blanks with adjectives from the box.

1. The cow ate the green grass.
2. Coal is black.
3. I dived into the blue water.
4. I ate the red apple.
5. Mala drank the white milk.
6. A chocolate bar is usually brown.

brown
red white black green blue

Possessive adjectives are used to show ownership.
They add something to the meaning of the noun.

EXAMPLES: This is my pen. Here is your cap.

M. Fill in the blanks with a possessive adjective from the brackets.

1. The cat licked its paws. (their / its)
2. Do you see that grey house? It is my house. (hers / my)
3. That man is a policeman. His name is Girdhari Lal. (His / Her)
4. You are late. Your food has become cold. (Your / Them)
5. Karnataka is the name of an Indian state. Its capital is Bangalore. (Your / Its)
6. The lion is sleeping in his den. (them / his)
7. This is Gopal. His brother's name is Bhuvan. (Her / His)
8. Those girls are my sisters. Their names are Minki and Rinki. (Them / Their)
9. This is an African elephant. Its name is Boosha. (Its / Their)
10. I have read 'Oliver Twist' by Charles Dickens. I have also read two of his other books. (its / his)
11. Rishabh can read. His mother teaches him how to read. (His / Her)
12. The Khans have a pet rabbit. That is their rabbit. (your / their)

NOTE: Be careful! Don't confuse possessive adjectives with possessive pronouns.

EXAMPLE: This is my pen. (my is a possessive adjective) This is mine. (mine is a possessive pronoun)

Q.M → Write 47 in copy