

QW-2

- 1) What is spinning?
- 2) Name two simple devices used for spinning
- 3) What are looms?
- 4) What are fabrics?
- 5) Name two synthetic fibres?
- 6) What is ginning?
- 7) List one use of jute?
- 8) What is sericulture?
- 9) Why do we need clothes?
- 10) List three uses of cotton?
- 11) What is knitting?

Answers

- 1ans) The process of making yarn from fibre is known as spinning.
- 2ans) Takli and Charkha two simple devices used for spinning.
- 3ans) Looms are used for weaving yarn to make a fabric.
There are two types of looms :- handlooms
powerlooms
- 4ans) Yarn ~~is~~ unwinds into thin hairlike strands called fabric.
- 5ans) Nylon and polyester are two examples of synthetic fibres.

6 ans → The process by which seeds are separated by combing is known as ginning.

7 ans → Jute is used for making ropes and mat.

8 ans → The rearing of silkworm for the ^{production} ~~practice~~ of silk is known as sericulture.

9 ans → We need clothes because it protect us from heat, cold, rain, dust, insects etc.

10 ans → Cotton is used ~~for~~ for making pillow, clothes, mattresses.

11 ans → The process in which a single yarn is used for making a piece of fabric is called knitting.