

Chapter: Fibre to Fabric

Fill in the blanks :-

- ① clothes are made from cotton
- ② fibres are woven to form fabrics
- ③ Name one process used for making fabrics from the fibre weaving
- ④ silk fibre is obtained from cocoon
- ⑤ Name one natural and one artificial fibre silk is natural & acrylic artificial

Very short answer

1. Fibre is defined as a material that is present in the form of a thin and continuous strand.
2. Fibres obtained from plants and animals are termed natural fibres.
3. Synthetic fibres are man made from chemicals.
4. The process of arranging two yarns together so that a fabric can be produced, is known as weaving.
5. It is used to make bed sheet, saree, pillows.
6. Natural and synthetic
7. Animal fibres such as silk and wool.