

08/11/21
Monday

Answer of Practice Questions

1

① The houses people live in vary from one another due to:

→ The location

→ climate

→ construction material

→ Economic condition

②, ③ → Do on your own.

④ Kuchcha houses Pucca houses

① These are made of mud.

② These are made of bricks and cement.

② More common in village.

② More common in cities.

③ These houses are cost less.

③ They need more money to make the brick.

7 We can see sloping roofs in cold regions as they do not allow rainwater and snow to collect and make house cold and damp.

8 The materials used to make houses in cold region are:

- wood
- Snow
- Ice

9 It is a house built by Eskimos made of snow and ice.

10 A tent house is a temporary house made of Canvas (Thick cloth). Nomads are using this.

05/11/21
Friday

Practice Questions [done in class]

3

- ① why the houses people live in vary from one region to another?
- ② what is a kachcha house?
- ③ what do you mean by pucca house?
- ④ write one difference between pucca house and kachcha house.
- ⑤ what types of houses we can see in towns and cities? → *Bungalows
→ *Multi-storied buildings. → pucca house
- ⑥ what do you mean by a flat or an apartment?
- ⑦ why we can see sloping roofs in cold regions?
Ans: Each house of multi-storied building is called flat.
- ⑧ what are the material used to make houses in cold region?
- ⑨ what is an igloo?
- ⑩ what is a tent house? who are using these houses?