

C.W
26/11/21

This, that / These, those

This car is small.

That car is big.

These flowers are red.

Those flowers are yellow.

We use this and that for nouns which mean one.
We use these and those for nouns which mean more than one.

H. Look at the example and change from this and that to these and those.

1. That girl is my cousin.

Those girls are my cousins.

2. That house is white.

Those houses are white.

3. That flower is pretty.

Those flowers are pretty.

4. This game is easy.

These games are easy.

5. This tree is full of green leaves.

These trees are full of green leaves.

6. That bird is singing sweetly.

Those birds are singing sweetly.

7. This tree is tall.

These trees are tall.

8. That girl is my friend.

Those girls are my friend.

English Focus book

Ch-10 The Pencil story

Difficult words:- (Write 3 times)

1. Surprised
2. notebook
3. Explained → describe
4. Lead
5. Because
6. Plenty → means as much or more

Make sentences:-

1. Plenty:- They have always had plenty of money.
2. Explained:- Let him explain all of it to his mother.
3. Because:- He got food poisoning because of undercooked chicken.

H.w.

Write and practice