

C. Change these sentences into indirect speech.

1. The coach said to the basketball team, "Make sure that you reach the venue on time."

The coach informed the basketball team to make sure that they reached the venue on time.

2. The teacher said, "Earlier, people were not aware that the earth is round."

The teacher told that earlier people had not

3. The environmentalist said to the audience, "Global warming is an irreversible phenomenon."

The environmentalist told to the audience that global warming was an irreversible phenomenon.

4. Aunt Jenny said to Mrs Verma, "Is Tina fond of reading ghost stories?"

Aunt Jenny asked Mrs Verma if Tina was fond of reading ghost stories.

5. "Have you seen my spectacles?" my mother asked me.

My mother asked me whether I had seen her spectacles.

6. Cyrus read out from the newspaper, "The United Nations is an international organization."

Cyrus read out from the newspaper that the United Nations was an international organisation.

7. "Where has Suresh gone?" he said.

He asked ^{me} where Suresh had gone.

8. Navin said, "I will reach on time if I set a morning alarm for five o'clock."

Navin told that he would reach on time if he set a morning alarm for five o'clock.

9. I said, "What a delightful party this is!"

I exclaimed that that was a delightful party.

10. My mother said to my father, "I have been working overtime, the past few weeks."

My mother informed my father that he had been working overtime, the past few weeks.

Convert into Reported speech.

1. Anupam said “ Veena worked very hard “.
 2. Neeha said to me, “ Where are you going ? “
 3. She said to me, “ Are you coming with him? “
 4. He said to the stranger, “ Where do you come from ? “
 5. I said him “ Have you done your homework ? “
 6. They said, “ You have helped me a lot”.
 7. He said, “ I have won “
 8. The mother said to her son, “ Why are you wasting your time ? “
 9. He said, “I have written a letter”.
 10. “ Where has Suresh gone? “ he said.
-