

Adverb Worksheet

Q. Rewrite the sentences with the given adverbs

1. She has gone to Australia (never)

2. I forgot my test date. (completely)

3. He went out. (quickly)

4. I guess I ate. (in a hurry).

5. They may disclose the mistake. (at once)

6. The Teacher told us not to waste our time. (often)

7. Are you a teacher? (even)

Types of Adverbs

Identify the type of adverb in each sentence.

1. The dog ran home quickly.
2. Theresa put down the baby gently.
3. Gerry jumped up when he saw his friend.
4. The principal always welcomes us to assembly.
5. Yusuf writes fairly neatly in his book.
6. Sarah will bake a cake tomorrow.
7. The train will arrive soon.
8. The girls usually spend their recess in the garden.
9. We went to the mall yesterday.
10. The taxi drove away.
11. I never forget to do my homework.
12. Nathan swam well in the gala.
13. The boat was anchored and went nowhere.

E. Fill in the blanks with the correct adverbs from the boxes.

- It is too late to telephone my grandfather. too very
- This match is very exciting. too very
- Malti has never done such a thing before. ever never
- This dress is very expensive. much very
- Rajdeep is feeling much better today. much very
- The train from Chennai arrived late. late lately
- Parveen has not been keeping well lately. lately late
- Joseph will surely help you with your experiment. surely safely
- Have your lunch quickly. clearly quickly
- Shikha spoke well at the meeting today. well good
- We are already late for the movie. already enough
- This house is big enough for us. already enough
- I can hardly wait for my turn to take the prize. hard hardly
- His performance in academics has been good. well good
- Ajay has looked for his dog everywhere anywhere everywhere

F. Read these dialogues. Put a / in each sentence where the adverb can be inserted.

- ROHAN: Have you ^{ever} / been to Ooty? ever

RITU: My family and I go there in summers. often

It is pleasant ^{extremely} / there at that time of the year. extremely

ROHAN: Where do you stay? usually

RITU: We stay ^{always} / at a lodge that faces the church. always

The view from the rooms is ^{very} / beautiful. very

- GEETA: What do you do on Sundays? usually

VIVEK: Mother used to wake me up before eight o'clock. earlier

She has begun waking me up at nine. lately

GEETA: Do you go to the park on Sundays? often

VIVEK: I ^{seldom} / go to the park. seldom

always

I play chess with my father.

always

My father feels that I play chess.

brilliantly
brilliantly

My brother and I watch an educational TV programme called Brain Teasers.

usually, exciting
usually, exciting

I'm happy to be at home with my family on Sundays.

quite

3. MOTHER: You were away for so long. I have been worried.

extremely
extremely

STUTI: The receptionist asked me to wait in the waiting room.

upstairs

I waited for almost an hour.

upstairs
~~there~~
there

I was sure that my turn wouldn't come today

pretty

but the doctor saw me at 6 o'clock.

finally
finally

MOTHER: But I made an appointment for you.

yesterday
yesterday

STUTI: I know, but the doctor was called to attend an emergency.

unexpectedly

ACTIVITY

ENRICHMENT
ACTIVITY

Play a game. Each student will say five things about their classmates' traits and habits. You will get one point for each adverb you use from the box. If you use adverbs from your own vocabulary, you will get two points. Use as many adverbs as you can, correctly!

gracefully well regularly everywhere carefully quite best happily quietly never just

ONE ADVERB FOR SEVERAL WORDS

Adverbs can also be used to express something briefly that would otherwise require several words.

G. Rewrite these sentences replacing the words in grey with adverbs from the box.

fiercely simultaneously beautifully immediately manually gradually briskly courteously untidily repeatedly silently swiftly endlessly eventually voluntarily

1. It seems to be raining without an end.

endlessly

2. I am helping in the tree plantation drive of my own free will.
Voluntarily
3. Sahil walked very fast towards the site of the accident.
Swiftly
4. Please reach the auditorium without any delay.
Immediately
5. The singles and the doubles matches were taking place at the same time.
Simultaneously
6. This washing machine has to be operated by hand.
manually
7. Varun's mother reminded him again and again to come home on time.
repeatedly
8. As time passed the children began to understand the concept of gravity.
Gradually
9. I was very worried but in the end everything turned out for the best.
eventually
10. It is important to wish people in a polite manner.
Courteously
11. The flock of birds flew at a very fast speed across the sky.
briskly
12. The lion looked at the mouse in a fierce manner.
fiercely
13. He wrote the letter in an untidy handwriting.
untidily
14. The conference hall was decorated in a beautiful way.
beautifully
15. After the Principal spoke to them, the students went to their classroom without making any noise.
Silently