

Child Hero

Dt- 15/01/2022

(Q/A)

1. Where is Licypriya from?

Ans- Licypriya is from Manipure, India

2. What effects of climate change is Licypriya worried about?

Ans- Licypriya is worried that the earth is getting hotter every year and that the ice at the North Pole and the South Pole is melting. Many species of animals are dying out because of climate change.

3. What did Licypriya feel about the government's decision to declare holidays to fight air pollution?

Ans- Licypriya felt that declaring holidays for a few days was not enough and wants our leaders to take stronger action to fight climate change.

4. Why did Licypriya help create SUKIPU?

Ans- Licypriya helped create SUKIPU to show that we may have to use devices like it in future if air pollution increases further.

5 Which three things does Ligypriya want India to do to fight Climate Change?

Ans- To fight climate change, Ligypriya wants the Indian government to pass climate laws. She wants everyone to learn about climate change as a compulsory subject in school. She also wants schools to encourage students to plant a specific number of trees before they complete their studies.

Answers

1(a) Ligypriya said this.

1(b) She said this at a conference organized by the United Nation in Madrid, Spain in 2019.

2(a) Ligypriya believes this.

2(b) She said this because some people tell her that she is too young.

3(a) The time to act against climate change is 'today and now'.

3(b) She said this at a conference in Madrid in 2019.

Write and Learn