

2. When did Mira finish the essay?

Mira finished the essay today.

3. Where are the students of class-5 going to?

The students of Class 5 are going to Salar Jung Museum.

4. Who rang the bell?

A salesperson selling vacuum cleaners rang the bell.

5. Why are the children happy?

The children are happy because their vacations begin tomorrow.

E Rewrite these exclamatory sentences as statements or imperative sentences.

1. This is so unfair!

This is very unfair.

2. How well you draw!

You draw very well.

3. Switch the lights off!

Please, switch off the lights.

4. My goodness! What a big city Mumbai is.

Mumbai is a big city!

5. Help!

Somebody please help me.

6. What a pleasant surprise it was!

It was a pleasant surprise.

7. Stop it!

Stop making mistakes.

8. Don't shout!

Don't shout, sit silently.

9. What a nice person!

He is a nice person.

10. Gosh! The auditorium is packed today.

The auditorium is packed today.

F Rewrite these questions as statements.

1. Has Sana gone to school?

Sana has gone to school.

2. Is Mani enjoying his singing classes?

Mani is enjoying his singing classes.

3. Is Mrs Kakkar a good dancer?

Mrs Kakkar is a good dancer.

4. Do bears hibernate in winter?

Bears hibernate in winter.

5. Should I attend the function tomorrow?

I should attend the function tomorrow.

6. Did you give Anu the message?

You gave Anu the message.

WORKSHEET ON SENTENCES

Write the type of sentences. (statement, interrogative, imperative or exclamatory)

1. What is the kitten's name?
2. What a pretty scarf this is?
3. Stop making mistakes.
4. Mira finished the essay today.

Write questions of these answers

1. My name is Swati.
2. My hobbies are singing and dancing.
3. I eat cereal for breakfast.

Rearrange the words to make sentences.

1. In the kitchen/some food/There is
2. The money/ Ritwik returned/he borrowed
3. Plays/ the guitar/ Kirti