

Class - IV

English Course Book

Poem - Granny, Granny, Please
Comb My Hair

Dt . 8/05/2023

Q. Write the meanings of these words.

1. Granny - grandmother

2. Cushion - a small pillow

3. rub - massage

4. breeze - a gentle wind

5. tugs - pulls hard

H/w

write in copy.

11-2/0/2023

C. Underline the subjects and circle the predicates.

- 1. Harry Potter is a wizard.
- 2. Sania won the tennis match.
- 3. The neem tree was big and strong.
- 4. The lion belongs to the cat family.
- 5. Enid Blyton wrote a lot of adventure stories for children.

D. Match the subjects and predicates to make complete sentences.

- | | |
|------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1. The farmer | found a mouse in the garden. 2 |
| 2. Tim, the cat, | drummed loudly on the roof. 3 |
| 3. The rain | are swaying in the wind. 4 |
| 4. The tall pine trees | grew potatoes in his fields. |
| 5. That large house | grazed in the meadow. 6 |
| 6. A herd of sheep | has seven bedrooms. 5 |

E. Complete these sentences by adding subjects of your own.

- 1. I water my plants every day.
- 2. We won the cricket match on Saturday.
- 3. The frog jumped into the pond.
- 4. Tom has a friend called Hardy.
- 5. A traffic police directs the traffic on the roads.
- 6. The sun shone brightly on a cool, winter day.

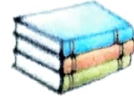

F. Tick (✓) the correct verb.

- 1. The best doctors (were / was) called to cure the king.
- 2. The sound of bells (was / were) heard all over the countryside.
- 3. Gold and silver (is / are) precious metals.
- 4. We (walk / walks) to our school every morning.
- 5. The leaves (is / are) rustling in the breeze.

6. Hamid and his friends (has / have[✓]) many storybooks.
7. Everyone (want / wants[✓]) to watch the football match.
8. Someone (are / is[✓]) knocking at the door.
9. No one (live / lives[✓]) in this house.
10. None of the students (was / were[✓]) present at the meeting.

6. Do this activity. Work in groups of four.

Lucky begins a sentence with a subject.

A girl

Ali adds a predicate to complete the sentence.

A girl walked down the corridor.

Dolma changes the subject of Ali's sentence and makes a new sentence.

Our principal walked down the corridor.

Swami changes the predicate of Dolma's sentence and makes a new sentence.

Our principal came into the classroom.

wizard - a man who has magical powers adventure - an unusual and exciting or daring experience
 rustling - make a soft sound by the movement of dry leaves

[QC → Do in copy]